IMPORTANT NOTE:

- Use the IRS data transfer and consultation tool provided by the FAFSA to complete the income portion, if you file a federal tax return.
- Apply on time and you will have more opportunities to receive other financial aid!
- The UIPR is licensed by the Board of Post-Secondary Institutions of Puerto Rico and is accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education

EVERY APPLICANT MUST HAVE A FEDERAL STUDENT AID ID (FSA ID)

(FSA ID - Federal Student Aid ID) consists of a username and a password that will be used to sign the application electronically, make changes or know its status.

For students who are dependent on their parents, a parent will need to request their own FSA ID to sign the student's FAFSA digitally. You can apply for the FSA ID by going to: <https://studentaid.gov/fsa-id/sign-in> landing when completing the FAFSA.

Your FSA ID is used to sign documents digitally. It has the same legal weight as a written signature. Do not give your FSA ID to anyone, not even the person who helps you fill out the FAFSA. By sharing your FSA ID, you could be at risk of identity theft!

SIGN AND SUBMIT

In order to submit your FAFSA, you must read the terms of use and choose Accept. Press to submit the FAFSA. If you are student who is dependent on your parents, one of them must sign.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER I COMPLETE THE FAFSA?

The answer is received within three days after submitting the application, you will receive a message with a link to the SAR (Student Aid Report). If you do not receive the answer within three days, access the FAFSA page (www.fafsa.gov) and in Section 3 select the option: "Check status of the submitted FAFSA" or "View Student Aid Report", Using your "FSA ID" you can verify the status of the grant.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN IF THE FAFSA IS SELECTED FOR VERIFICATION?

If the FAFSA answer includes an asterisk (*) on the right side of the Expected Family Contribution (EFC). This asterisk means that your application was selected by the Federal Department of Education's Central Processing System (CPS) to be reviewed in a process called verification. The Financial Aid officer will verify that the information you submitted on the FAFSA is correct and they can request additional information from you for this purpose. If there is any discrepancy in what you reported on your FAFSA and the documents you submitted, the information submitted on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid will need to be corrected.
